

New Members to the Canadian Supervisory Board

Mr. Will Samuel, Chairman, and Mr. Michael Tripp, Group Chief Executive, are pleased to announce the addition of two new members to the Canadian Supervisory Board (CSB). Janet Leiper, LL.B., LL.M., C.S., is a barrister in private practice and Integrity Commissioner for the City of Toronto. Janet has extensive experience with investigations, prosecutions and defence work on behalf of lawyers and the Law Society of Upper Canada; and has served as independent counsel to a number of regulated health professional colleges. She is an Alternate Chair of both the Ontario Review Board and the Nunavut Review Board. Jonathan Guss is Chief Executive Officer of the Ontario Medical Association (OMA) where he leads a staff of 300 that serve and represent the 30,000 active physicians of Ontario. Prior to joining the OMA, Jonathan presided over the Credit Union of Central Ontario, served on the Board at the University of Guelph, and as a diplomat in the Department of Foreign Affairs. The other members of the Canadian Supervisory Board are: Michael Tripp, Mark Hews, Dr. William Waters, Jacinta Whyte, Steve Lovisek and Stuart Rowley. Please join us in welcoming Janet and Jonathan to the EIO family.
